

JFK Recordings

Excerpt from EXCOMM Meeting of October 18, 1962 (2:12 minutes)

JFK monologue. JFK recording his review of the situation and substance of discussions of the previous day with Dean Acheson, Robert Lovett, and McGeorge Bundy. Mentions need to maintain cover. The White House October 18th, 1962 (3:22 minutes)

JFK radio and television report to the American people on the Soviet arms buildup in Cuba from The White House October 22, 1962 (18:11 minutes)

Excerpt of discussions of civil preparations for a nuclear attack on United States following an invasion of Cuba, October 24, 1962 (3:52 minutes)

JFK calls former President Eisenhower to brief him on the missile crisis, October 28, 1962. (4:19 minutes)

JFK calls former President Truman to brief him on the missile crisis, October 28, 1962. (1:21 minutes)

JFK calls former President Hoover to brief him on the missile crisis, October 28, 1962. (0:51 minutes)

November 1962 White House meeting on Cuba concerning the situation following the Cuban Missile Crisis and include discussion on methods of inspection, compliance with inspection, the removal of the IL-28's, the lifting of the quarantine, and the debate on US non-invasion assurances. (16:50 minutes)